

I am opposed to the further consolidation of broadcast and print media. I feel that more open hearings should be held before a vote is taken. Hasn't the FCC learned its lesson from the deregulation of the radio stations. Now only one major corporation owns almost all of the stations in my city (Clear Channel). Only the views that Clear channel has is available. NOT ACCEPTABLE.